Hypoport AG expands share repurchase programme: maximum price raised to € 40.00

Berlin, 18 September 2015: The Management Board of Hypoport AG has today decided – with the consent of the Supervisory Board – to expand the share repurchase programme approved on 3 July 2015. The maximum price per share will be raised from its current level of €30.00 to €40.00 (plus purchase-related costs).

This adjustment of the maximum price will take effect on 21 September 2015 this year. All other parameters of the share repurchase programme approved on 3 July this year will remain unchanged (for further information on this programme please refer to the Company's ad-hoc disclosure dated 3 July 2015).

As required by the pertinent EU Regulation, Hypoport AG will continue to report regularly on the executed transactions on its website at <http://www.hypoport.de/investorrelations.html>.

Information on Hypoport AG

The Hypoport Group is a technology-based financial service provider. The business model is based on its three mutually supporting business units: Private Clients, Financial Service Providers, and Institutional Clients. All three units are engaged in the distribution of financial services, facilitated or supported by finance-technology ('fintech'). As a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hypoport, Europace AG develops and operates the web-based EUROPACE financial marketplace, which is Germany's largest platform for mortgages, building finance products and personal loans. A fully integrated system links 300 partners – banks, insurers and financial product distributors. Several thousand users execute some 35.000 transactions worth a total of up to €4 billion on EUROPACE every month. The Hypoport subsidiary Dr. Klein & Co. AG is an independent online distributor of financial products. This firm's specialists provide private clients with a full range of advisory services around mortgage finance, insurance and retirement planning. Dr. Klein & Co. AG has been a major financial service partner to housing companies, local authorities and commercial property investors since 1954. Hypoport AG is headquartered in Berlin, employs more than 500 people and is listed in the Prime Standard of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.
